

MOORS AND CHRISTIANS: IN ALCOY

Andrea Rodríguez
Noa Vázquez

MOORS AND CHRISTIANS

It is a celebration that takes place in many cities and towns in Spain. They commemorate the battles between the Moors and Christians during the Reconquest.

HOW DO THEY CELEBRATE?

They have parades and they dress up in Medieval clothes.

Some people dress up like Christians and other people dress up like Moors. The Christians wear metallic helmets, and armours, and also ride horses. The Arabs ride camels and elephants.

WHERE DO THEY CELEBRATE?

The Spanish celebrate
Christians and Moors festivals in Valencian Community.

WHEN DO THE CELEBRATE?

They celebrate it from 22nd to 24th of April.

And then the Feast Day of Saint George who scared away the Moors.

THE END

