

EASTER CREATIVE WORK

brief history

From Pre-school "Pietro Mascagni" of Prato (Italy) a history-Laboratory fantastic to reflect on the importance of rules, based on the story of "Peter Rabbit" by Beatrix Potter.

Letter to Peter Rabbit

In woods, under the roots of a large fir tree, the family lives of Peter Rabbit. A little further, in an old pine trunk, there is the school of Peter: to attend so many rabbits, but not always hear the words of their teachers, or those of their mothers. For this, the teacher Peter has decided to give its pupils a task to why the rules are important and how do you respect them, and as Easter approaches, only someone who has been really good will be rewarded with a big chocolate egg . Back home, Peter has decided to write a letter to some school children who perhaps can help him carry out his task. The rabbit asked the children: "How to behave to avoid falling into trouble? You should always listen to the words of the mother and those of the teacher? How important are friends? ". Then he entrusted his letter to the birds of the forest that led up the garden in flight-school "Pietro Mascagni", where they dropped. After finding it, with the help of their teachers, the children responded to Peter Rabbit doing their reflections.

Dear Peter,

we found in our garden your letter and now you respond because you can do the task given to you by the teacher. We all know your story, because our teachers have told us, and we also saw in video when you're trapped in Mr. McGregor's garden, where you were trying to eat a lot of good things. He began to take rincorrerti and wanted to make a tasty pie rabbit's face was very ugly, and it seemed like a monster. But the teachers told us that he had reason to be angry, to cultivate his garden had taken much time and hard work and you would have you eaten so many carrots, onions, salad ... are things that you do! We must not take things without permission of the other. You have done a very bad thing to go there, because you have not heard the words of her mother and lost even new clothes and shoes. See what it's like to always listen to the words of the mother? You would not in trouble! The mother at home and teachers at school, we teach the rules to follow to learn how to behave. Sometimes it's a little 'respect them and other difficult times we may seem unnecessary, but the only way to live well together, by loving best. For example, if it comes together does not understand anything, because the rule is that you must speak one at a time, or when you go into the garden, do not run and do not pull pressures, otherwise we get hurt. So, always listens to the words of your mother and those of the teacher. Even friends are very important, we're just like the little brothers and tell us the good things to do.

You understand, Peter? We hope to have you help us with our words to do the task given to you by the teacher. If you behave well, we'll send you some good food and carrots, you'll see that if you give us a straight, you'll win the Easter egg.

We do the cheering for you!

Greetings and hugs from the children of the Pre-school "P.Mascagni" Prato Italy
