

Fool's day

Fool's Day In Spain

- In Spain, Fool's day is on the 28th of December. Many people consider this day as part of Christmas, but some people really enjoy this day. They play jokes on other people.

Typical Jokes in Spain

- Hang a paper with a human design on the back of a person. Maybe, you can write a funny message on the paper.
- Put a bucket of water on the top of a door, and when a person opens it, the bucket falls over the person and he/she gets wet.
- Cut someone's cigarette when he or she is smoking.

Different TV shows

- There aren't many TV shows in Spain for Fool's day. In those shows, people play jokes on other people, usually famous people. The people don't usually get angry, but there are always some boring people who don't enjoy the jokes very much.

Many people really enjoy the jokes, and other people don't really like them, but on Fool's day, the most important thing is to be happy and invent new jokes for the next year.
